ALLIES USE SPECTACULAR BOMBING PLAN

Meandering Along the Main Stem By WASH FAYETTE

As I was coming home on the train the other night from Columbus, I started a conversation with a soldier who was seated next to me, about army life and our home towns. This is what he said about the small town he had come from: "When I get my feet planted in the old home town, you won't see me doing any more traveling."

Perhaps this soldier was thinking of his mother's home cooking when he made this remark, for although our soldiers are well fed, when their regular supplies run out they have to eat emergency rations. He told me the men on duty in the African desert or the sub-Arctic zones are given handbooks that tell what to do in the case of an emergency. Here are a few things the handbook states: "Polar bear livers are poisonous; a diet of rabbit will lead to "rabbit starvation," but seal hearts and kidneys and broiled reindeer

RAF bombers flying a spectacular new shuttle route of some 2,500 miles round-trip blasted the German Zeppelin works at Friedrichshafen the night of June 20, flew on to North Africa and returned to England early today after pounding the Italian naval base at La Spezia on the way home, the British Air Ministry announced. In accomplishing the unprecedented feat, not a single one of the big four-engined RAF Lancasters was lost, the Air Ministry has estimated their present pay which is believed to be a main base of the shore-hugging Italian fleet, and bomb hits were scored on the docks.

Technique Is New

This shuttle technique never was used before on a large scale at long range.

Air observers said the most obvious advantage was that the raiders were able to land and reservice without retracing a course along which the enemy defenses already had been alerted by the

Axis Invasion Jitters Aggravated by Message To France To Get Ready

(While DeWitt MacKenzie is on vacation, this daily column is being written by Max Hill, former chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Tokyo).

By MAX HILL

The day the Axis radio told us there would be an invasion of Europe-June 22-has passed without any sign of activity on the part of Allied forces.

There was on that day, however, one dramatic clue to events to come. The British broadcasting company in a program beamed to France said the following "Be ready!"

The French were told eight months ago that the Allies would let them know of invasion in time for them to give every aid possible. The broadcast, urged the French to be prepared and

It would be difficult, if not impossible, to send an invasion force through Holland or Belgium because of the type of coastline encountered there.

The BBC broadcast was the specific reference to a probable invasion point which has been made to date.

administrator complete jurisdiction over the Farm Security Administration (FSA) loan and tenant purchase activities, but curtailing funds for the program, was accepted by the House, and now goes back to the Senate. In attempting to adjust its differences with the Senate on the 1944 agriculture appropriations bill, the House altered its previous stand for abolition of the agency.

Reports of improved weather and crop conditions, particularly in midwestern grain, livestock and dairy regions, eased official apprehension over 1943 food production prospects.

Proponents want the authority over food production, transportation, distribution, pricing and rationing placed under Chester C. Davis, War Food Administrator who now is in charge of production and distribution.

On the bright side of the farm and food picture, the weather bureau in a weeky summary of crop conditions said the past week brought the most favorable agricultural weather of the year, on a country-wide basis. Two weeks ago the agriculture department said crop prospects were at the lowest in two years.

The Wesley Mite Society Enjoys Musical Tea

Forty members of Wesley Mite Society spent a pleasant afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lester Dodd Wednesday afternoon when she entertained with a musical

Mrs. John Markley, president, conducted the business meeting with Mrs. Frank Christopher in charge of the devotions.

Following the business meeting, an entertaining program was presented, with Mrs. Dodd as leader. Two piano duets by Loraine and Maryanna Allen; piano solos by Donna Jean McAfee and Sue Paul and three songs by Dixie Lee Ellis formed the musical section of the program. Mrs. Ola Boyer and Mrs. Tillie Lemons gave reading which were enjoved by the ladies.

Three out-of-town guests were included with the members, Mrs. Oscar Glass of Jamestown, Mrs. Ralph Thomas of Mt. Sterling and Mrs. Ellsworth Binegar

At the close of the afternoon tea was served with dainty cakes and sandwiches. Many beautiful spring flowers, some belonging to Mrs. Dodd and others presented by her friends, filled the air with fragrance.

Mrs. Dodd was assisted in the hospitalities by Miss Frances Baldwin, Mrs. Arthur Finley, Mrs. Mable Bishop, Mrs. Ola Boyer, Mrs. Harry Hyer, Mrs. J. H. Hendryx, Mrs. Frank Christopher, Mrs Will Hay and Mrs. V. H. Hoppes.

BEETLE TRAPS TO BE PLACED IN THIS CITY

Seek Data on Spread of the Japanese Beetle in Community

Beetle traps, such as used by the Federal Department of Agriculture in this city a number of years ago to determine if Japanese beetles had reached this area, are to be distributed in Washington C. H. within the next few days, to ascertain the spread of beetles which are now known to infest the community, and are on the increase, and determine what control measures are neces-

Announcement of placing the beetle traps here was made by John W. Baringer, Chief of the Division of Plant Industry, who said the Ohio Department of Agriculture, cooperating with local officials and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, will place the metal traps in the city. Most of the traps will be

The Japanese beetle is an introduced plant pest. In the vicinity of New Jersey it appears as an adult beetle about the middle of June and is most abundant during July and August. Farther south it may appear earlier. The adult beetle is about 1-4 inch with rows of white spots down each side of the body. It is a long, colored green and brown voracious feeder, causing great damage to blossoms, fruit and rose and hollyhock. Soon after emergence female beetles begin depositing eggs in the soil. After the eggs hatch, the grubs feed on roots of grasses and other vegetation, causing considerable damage to turf in lawns and golf greens. The beetles overwinter as grubs in the ground. Trap inspectors do n information about other plant pests. Please address requests for such information to: John W. Baringer, Chief, Division of Plant Industry, Ohio Department of Agriculture, Columbus, Ohio.

SONG AND DANCE FIESTA! Lovely Lupe Velez cuts loose with songs that sizzle, dances that dazzle and romance that tingles in Columbia's newest filmusical, "Redhead from Manhattan." The film, which opens Sunday at the State Theatre, was directed by Lew Landers and also features handsome Michael Duane along with Douglas Leavitt and Douglass Drake. Also on same program, "Crime Doctor," mystery thriller starring Warner Baxter, will end its run at the State Theatre on Sunday. This exciting film is the first picture to be made from the dramatic radio series which, for more than three years, has been an outstanding Sunday night feature over the CBS coast-tocoast network. The screen play is crowded with suspense as the now famous Dr. Ordway, played by Mr. Baxter, mingles with lurid underworld characters in his efforts to "cure" crime. Margaret Lindsay plays opposite the star.

Not long after he reported back up the harmless snake and from the Navy Department that he had been seriously injured. But, no details were given. Even now, just what happened is not clear because he told his parents he could remember only vaguely of falling. He said he thought it was during some routine activities aboard his ship (he never did give its name or type) while in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. He plunged over the side to the concrete dock more than 20 feet below. For weeks he was in the naval hospital in Bayonne, N. J., totally blind as the result of head injuries received in the fall. Later he was sent home for rest in the hope that time would heal his wounds.

His mother said after her other son had gone back to rejoin his ship that she expected "Don would never be the same again." She explained that while he had regained his sight partially she feared it would always be impaired.

What Bill where he has been, what kind of ship he is on and what he expects to do were kept in strictest secrecy even from his family. He may have told his brother a bit more but his secrets are safe with the other sailor. His mother however, said she felt certain he had been spending most of his time at sea with the fleet and that he expected to go to sea again shortly after he returned from his leave. While Bill told his mother he was anxious "to get this war over with" so he could get back to his home on the farm, his brother said he was "crazy about the navy" and that he would have liked to remain in the service.

Their mother recalled how uneasy she was about her boys when they were overseas-she had a "feeling" they were among the invasion forces when she first heard the news-then she sighed "and to think this would happen to Don right here at home.

Don, his mother said, is hoping that he can remain in the navy and take some special course of training. He has not yet been discharged and expects to go back to one of the naval hospitals in the near future.

Bill, 19 years old, was the first to enlist. Not long afterward. Don, just a year younger, joined, too, in the hope that he could be with his brother. But they never got together, except for that brief unexpected meeting during the battle for Africa.

By STANLEY DRIVER NEARLY LOSES HIS LIFE IN TRUCK FIRE

Union Chapel Church Has Narrow Escape from Being Destroyed

Weyland Melroy, of Sycamore, nearly lost his life and his burning truck almost set fire to Union Chapel Church at Yatesville, shortly before midnight Wednesday, when the big livestock truck he was driving was wrecked and destroyed by fire. Sheriff W. H. Icenhower, who investigated and brought Melroy, badly cut and burned, to this city, said Melroy told him that he had gone to sleep and the truck failed to make a turn in the road just north of the church in Yatesville. Sheriff Icenhower said there was indication that the truck was making too much speed and when struck the curve, it went over the embankment at a culvert crashed through the fence north of the church, tearing down part of the iron fence in front of the church and came to rest in the edge of the church yard. The trailer went over the top of the tractor part of the truck and landed within a few yards of the church. It caught fire at once from the 80 gallons of gasoline in the truck and burned furiously. Call was made for the Jeffersonville Fire Department but there Mrs. Anna L. Harris, 75, died was a misunderstanding of loca-

nished from that source. A bucket brigade was formed ing, although the paint was badly blistered by the intense heat. The only part of the new truck that was left intact was two months as all of the stamps and Friday at 2 P. M. at the Methodist wheels. Diesel Whistle Is Mistaken For Air Raid Blasts Late in Night

Due to a freight wreck at East Monroe, where a locomotive and one car were derailed and the main line tied up for hours, the National Limited streamlined passenger train on the main line of the B. & O. was detoured through this city, and the unusual whistle aroused most of the citizens, many of whom believed it was an air raid warn-The diesel-engined train passed through this city about 12:30 and the loud noise of the whistle, which was sounded almost continuously as the train was passing through aroused sleepers generally. The train stopped here for a short time and took on passengers who were to have boarded the train early in the evening at Greenfield.

A freight train was also detoured through this city, coming Lieut, James Collins Ottipoby, up from Midland City and going above, a Comanche, born in a tepee | southeast to Musselman and back on the main line tracks at that
